Message from Lay Director

Hello my friends. As we begin our fall season of activities, let me first say that I hope and pray that you were able to spend some wonderful, quality moments sharing with your family and friends over the summer months. These are special gifts that fill our hearts with love and gladness and especially, memories to last a lifetime. It is so very important to maintain this quality time to relax with each other and with Our Lord as we journey through this lifetime on earth. Cursillo is one of these special gifts that allows us this period of interconnection, that allows us to gather and share as friends, that allows us to be ourselves as community gathered in love and friendship with Jesus as our center. Our Cursillo, which is so totally a gift from God, fully awakened our God within our hearts and our souls and continually gives us the graces to be who we are today, wherever we are in our environment. So my friends, I invite you to be with us, to come and share our special gift of Ultreya, to allow us to experience the God within you so that we can all continue on our spiritual journey of love. Make a friend, be a friend, bring that friend to Jesus. DeColores, Rick
